THIRTY-FIRST WEEK IN ORDINARY TIME

♦ Today we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints. In the Book of Revelation, St. John declares: "I saw a great multitude which no man could number, of all nations, and tribes, and peoples, and tongues, standing before the throne and in sight of the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and with palms in their hands." (cf. Rev. 7:9) This vast multitude represents the Church Triumphant in heaven, composed of the apostles, martyrs, confessors, virgins and all other holy souls who had been heroic servants of God on earth and now admitted to everlasting joy. While rejoicing over their triumph, we should always honor the saints, especially the Blessed Virgin Mary, our guardian angel and our patron saint. We should strive to imitate in our daily lives the many outstanding and heroic virtues which shone forth in their lives.

Almighty and eternal God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord:
Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys.

♦ On Monday we celebrate All Souls' Day. The Church invites us to pray for the deceased, offering our daily sufferings and efforts so that, completely purified, they may be admitted to the eternal joy of light and peace in the Lord. Charity calls us to have solicitude for the dead as for the living, and by virtue of the Communion we share in the spiritual graces and blessings within the Body of Christ, we can assist those still in need of further purification, the Church Suffering, into the glory of heaven. Mass on Monday will be celebrated in Braeside at 9:00 a.m.

Eternal Rest grant unto them, O Lord.
And let perpetual light shine upon them.
May they rest in peace. Amen.

♦ On All Souls' Day a Plenary Indulgence for the deceased can be gained by visiting the Church, saying the Our Father and the Creed. From November 1st through November 8th inclusive, a Plenary Indulgence for the deceased is granted to those who visit a cemetery and pray for the faithful departed. Both Indulgences are gained in accord with the usual conditions (Confession, Communion and a prayer for the Holy Father's intentions).
